Obituary

An obituary is not required. If you choose to write an obituary, we can assist in writing and placing it in the newspaper(s). We also recognize that families often have a talented writer who can add those touches that are unique to their loved one. We have enclosed an obituary writing template to write your obituary if so desired. Publishing a photo along with the obituary is an option. You may bring in your photo and we will keep it in your file until it is needed.

Newspapers do charge for placing obituaries in their newspapers, pricing is determined by the total number of lines used. This charge will vary from paper to paper. The paper selected also retains the right to change the organization of the submitted obituary. Our staff can explain this in further detail.
